YEARS OF SERVICE AWARD
to
MIGUEL CARBONELL

Miguel Carbonell has been employed with Monroe County since April of 1990. He first began his employment with the County as a Code Enforcement Inspector, and in 2001, he was promoted to his current position as Coordinator of Parks & Recreation.

As the Coordinator of Parks & Recreation, Miguel processes hundreds of requests to use County property each year, ranging from family gatherings and photo shoots to the filming of movies and commercials. He handles each one in a professional and timely manner, as attested to by his official personnel file which is overflowing with accolades and commendations.

Miguel recently acquired the added duty of Safety Representative for the Facilities Maintenance Department, and safety meetings have never been more interesting; there has been nothing but praise from fellow staff about the way he conducts the meetings. In addition, Miguel developed a more comprehensive manner in which to track safety and cleaning supplies for the Department.

Miguel is an asset to Public Works and Monroe County, and we are pleased to recognize him today for his 15 years of dedicated and loyal service.
